Quilters Group Bids Farewell
Mount Olivet Home and Mount Olivet Careview Home bid a fond farewell to our Mount Olivet Quilters. This creative sewing group was organized many years ago to make quilts for the beds at the Mount Olivet Conference and Retreat Center. The group relocated to Mount Olivet Home in the late 1990s where very Tuesday morning, they faithfully gathered working on quilts and socializing with residents. This led to mending residents’ clothing and sewing on buttons which made residents very happy. The group also made beautiful quilts that were raffled to raise funds to benefit projects at both Homes.

Quilter Murna Cassada says, “It was such a joy to get together and mix with the residents and have them see us doing what they remember their mothers doing.” We extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to quilters Murna Cassada, Hollis Fricek, Gayle Johnson, Mary Knudson, Connie Larson, Marilyn Strand, and remember with great fondness, Doris Bergerson, and Ethel Elzea who have passed away.
Britni Bolstad has been named director of nursing for Mount Olivet Careview Home and Mount Olivet Home. She has been with Mount Olivet for two years, starting initially as the director of education, moving into the role of director of facility compliance, and now director of nursing.

Britni is a registered nurse by background and has her doctorate of nursing practice in leadership and health innovation from St. Catherine University. Britni grew up in Eden Prairie, Minnesota, and attended the University of Minnesota for both her bachelor’s and master’s degrees in nursing.

What she enjoys and appreciates most about Mount Olivet is the sense of family and community that is deeply rooted in its history and culture. Britni recognizes the importance of adaptability during these uncertain times, and she is committed to fostering and sustaining effective change for the growth and success of the nursing department.

We are excited for Britni’s transition and for the possibilities that the future may hold for our Mount Olivet family and the greater community.
